

One Stands Out

LXXI

Class of '71

The seemingly infinite has finally become the finite. After twelve long years of ups and downs, we, the class of '71, have reached our year.

With graduation comes mixed feelings of joy and sorrow. Some of us are eager to find jobs and maybe even settle down, while others await college next fall. But none of us can forget all the friends we grew up with, not to mention the fun we've had. So, in a way, we're also sad to leave.

Throughout the past twelve years, we have constantly witnessed history in the making, both good and bad. But tragic headlines became so frequent that they no longer seemed so unexpected and shocking. Then, in mid-January, tragedy struck closer to home as Pat Gibbins died in an automobile accident.

With less than twenty years behind us, we now have plenty of time to achieve our separate goals in life. We have a choice, whereas Pat didn't. So let us choose to make the most of life — never despairing, always looking forward to tomorrow. The future is what we make it!
