Homecoming Court

Ruth Jorgensen 1980 Homecoming Queen.

Terni Romines Maid of Honor.

Homecoming 1980 began with Spirit Week, a time for the promotion of pride and enthusiasm for Lanphier. During the week preceding Homecoming each day was set aside for a special activity: Hat and Glasses Day, Button Day, Class Color Day, Sports Day and Orange and Black Day.

The first annual Homecoming bonfire was held on Thursday, followed by a pep assembly on Friday. The traditional unwrapping of the roses was made more interesting this year by the addition of a male on the court. When Rob Fleck agreed to stand in for his date, Ruth Jorgensen (who was attending the IHSA State Tennis Tournament), he did not know that he would be unwrapping the red rose which indicates Homecoming Queen.

Saturday, October 25, was a busy day for all Lanphier enthusiasts. The Homecoming parade was held at 10:00 a.m. with Pep Club's "Wide World of Sports" float taking top honors. That afternoon the Lanphier football team played a rugged game against 10th ranked Decatur MacArthur and came out on top with a 7-6 victory.
