The Homecoming festivities started early in the week as students participated in Spirit Week. The days consisted of Wacky Day, Sports Fan Day, Rockstar Day, Decade Day, and Spirit Day. People filled into the gym to support our boys and rejuvenate school spirit at the annual Homecoming Pep Assembly. The parade followed the pep assembly and people lined the streets to watch the nifty floats go by. At the highly anticipated game against the SHS Senators, the bleachers were filled with an immeasurable crowd of orange and black.

The 2007 Homecoming dance theme was Dancing The Night Away. On Saturday, September 22, LHS students spent the day sitting for hair and nail appointments, finalizing dinner reservations, and picking up flowers. At 8:00, limos invaded the parking lot as everyone anticipated a twilight evening of romance and dancing. Students were in awe as they gazed at the twinkling lights, the beautiful stage, and the creative dancing cut-outs decorating the walls. After several hours of dancing, students gathered for the introduction of the court. At 10:00, Nikki Lyons, escorted by Kevin Pollen, was crowned as queen by 2006 queen, Kara Vansack, escorted by George Weed. The royal couple, maid of honor Stephanie Patton, escort Ryan Cookson and the court members and their dates danced to Elliot Yamin's, Wait For You. As the last song was played, the seniors savored the moment of their last homecoming dance.
